

November 1, 2010

Hill Reality

Dear Jeff,

I thought I would write you a letter of thanks as there is much to be thankful for in your efforts for the sale of our house.

Few people would see and know of your daily efforts in this task Jeff. However, I can tell you that I saw it! When I write here, I am just writing about our house sale and I know this effort is multiplied many times over for you with other real estate sales.

The level of effort on your part was not ordinary. It was profound and based on my observation it was over the top every day. The problems generated by these kinds of sales actually require someone like you to deal with them on all levels to assure the sale will be closed. This is itself an indicator of the level of experience and knowledge one must possess in order to deal with issues of this magnitude and this does not take into account the drive and dedication in combination with the experience and knowledge to overcome obstacles impeding the sale.

In my estimate you are nothing short of a hero in Fran's and my life. There are not many people of your quality that I know. I want to thank you and say that I really am glad to have you as a friend.

You can use this letter as a testimonial for other would be customers. If you do, I highly recommend you to anyone interested in selling their house and they can call me on it.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Raymond Stevenson". The signature is stylized with a large, sweeping flourish that extends to the right and then loops back under the name.

Ray Stevenson